What Type Of Organization Is The North Orange County Senior Collaborative?

Thank you for your interest in the North Orange County Senior Collaborative. We are first, a service organization comprised of for-profit and non-profit aging services agencies and organizations focusing on identifying and addressing unmet needs of seniors and their caregivers in Orange County. As a service organization we:

- Publish an annual Senior Resource Guide (request a free copy);
- Develop and distribute an unmet local senior needs survey bi-annually;
- Focus on ways / projects to address these unmet needs on alternate years;
- Provide Educational Forums for Professionals on a bi-monthly basis;
- Offer a monthly Senior Care 101 Class for family, caregivers and professionals;
- Maintain a website and Facebook page;
- Participate in Community events focusing on senior issues (i.e., World Elder Abuse Awareness Day, etc.); and
- Meet for general meetings on an alternate bi-monthly basis.
